

CHILD & FAMILY COUNSELING

JOB POSTING: CHILD THERAPIST (LMFT/LCSW)

Looking to be part of a supportive family-like team, with a flexible schedule, competitive compensation, and ongoing professional development, while making a meaningful difference in the lives of motivated clients?

New Leaf is a growing psychotherapy group practice dedicated to serving children, adolescents, adults and families in the Coachella Valley and surrounding areas. New Leaf is currently seeking a part-time (average of 15-20 clinical hours) or full-time (25+ clinical hours) LMFT, LCSW or Psychologist to provide psychotherapy services for insurance-based and self-pay clients (in our beautiful centrally-located Palm Desert office, with a combination of in-person sessions and Telehealth).

The ideal candidate is a licensed therapist who:

- Is able to commit to growing a caseload of at least 15 clients per week (option to build a full-time load of 25+)
- Is passionate about working with children as young as 4, as well as teens and adults with a variety of presenting issues using a trauma-informed lens
- Has at least one clinical focus area and experience in evidence-based treatment for one or more of the following: anxiety disorders, OCD, ADHD, behavioral challenges, autism/neurodivergence, early childhood issues, maternal mental health, trauma, divorce, life transitions, grief, substance abuse, eating disorders, etc.
- Is seeking a long-term opportunity, desiring to grow with the organization

Hours: Multiple shifts and flexible scheduling available. Work hours and schedule may vary depending on client and practice needs. (Note: must be available on Mondays 12-1pm for clinical consultation meetings at least twice per month). Ideal candidates will be able to commit to at least 3 days per week at the practice, and work at least two afternoons/evenings or weekend days.

New Leaf Child & Family Counseling provides:

- Steady stream of referrals (growing caseload of 15+ clients upon completion of insurance credentialing and initial marketing efforts – after approximately 90 days of hire)
- Competitive hourly compensation – paid for all hours worked, in addition to a percentage of revenue generated by clinical services
- Health benefits for full-time employees
- Practice administration – including in-house billing, insurance credentialing, benefit/eligibility coordination, scheduling, and more
- Individual consultation with Owner & Clinical Director
- Weekly peer case consultation & supportive and caring team environment
- Free-of-cost trainings in the areas of play therapy and sand tray therapy for clients of all ages
- Electronic health record system to conveniently manage schedule and maintain client records
- Comfortable and beautifully decorated office space with essential office supplies and a variety of therapeutic games, toys, and art materials

Application Instructions: Please email your cover letter and resume with the subject “Child Therapist” to april@newleafcv.com
